.....RESPONDENT

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a writ, order or direction more in the nature of Mandamus declaring the action of the respondent in not providing employment under compassionate grounds due to the death of the husband of the petitioner Mr. Aitharaju Saidulu, who died in harness while working as Attender in the Court of Junior Civil Judge, Ramannapet, Nalgonda Dist, to the son of the petitioner in spite of availability of vacancies and submission of all relevant documents, as highly arbitrary, illegal and violative of Article 14, 16 and 21 of the Constitution of India , and consequentially to the direct the respondent to provide compassionate appointment as per the Government orders forthwith in the interest of Justice,

Counsel for the Petitioner:MR.P.V.RAMANA

Counsel for the Respondent: MR.C.V.NAGARJUNA REDDY

The Court made the following :

Oral Order: (per Sri Devinder Gupta, CJ)

Petitioner, in this writ petition has questioned the action of the respondent in not considering her representation for employment under compassionate grounds due to the death of her husband. Petitioner prays that employment be given to her son in the vacancies that are available. She, therefore, seeks appropriate directions to the respondent.

Learned counsel for the respondent states that the representation of the petitioner is under consideration.

Considering the facts and circumstances, we dispose of this writ petition with a direction to the respondent to take appropriate decision on the petitioner's representation within a period of three months from the date of receipt a copy of this order and to communicate the same to the petitioner.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
